'GLIMMERS' LAUNCHES AT CCA DERRY~LONDONDERRY

A NEW SOLO SHOW BY YASMINE ROBINSON

CCA Derry~Londonderry is delighted to announce its upcoming exhibition 'Glimmers' by artist Yasmine Robinson will launch at the gallery on 28 March 2026, 7–9pm.

Glimmers is a new body of work that explores abstraction as an embodied and responsive process whilst highlighting the artist's use of colour, surface and gesture. Yasmine's work explores painting as both a material process and a site for reflection, memory and perception. This show reflects her ongoing engagement with the physical and emotional possibilities of paint, as well as her intuitive approach to mark-making.

ABOUT THE ARTIST: Yasmine Robinson is a painter from Co. Derry and currently based in Belfast. Her work explores materiality, form, and process, engaging with painting's phenomenological potential. She holds an MA from Chelsea College of Art, University of the Arts London, where she was awarded the Frank Bowling Scholarship. Her work has been exhibited internationally, including at Messums West (Tisbury), Frieze London, Sim Smith (London), The MAC (Belfast), F.E. McWilliam Gallery (Banbridge), and Im Labor (Tokyo).
