

OPEN CALL: AD HOC VOLUNTEERS

CCA is looking for ad hoc volunteers to get involved with various areas of CCA's work including exhibition installation and research. Ad hoc volunteers are sometimes a one-off extra pair of hands for an event or a few days or weeks, depending on the needs of the project and the circumstances of the volunteer. Keep an eye on our website for information on how to apply in the coming months, if you are interested in getting involved longer-term.

As a volunteer you will receive instruction and guidance from CCA staff and will be trained to museum standards in whatever the task requires. We are looking for keen individuals with a passion for contemporary art and willingness to get involved; a desire to learn; professionalism; approachability and a positive attitude; a polite and patient demeanour; and good communication skills with a broad range of people from the general public to arts specialists.

If you would like to become an ad hoc volunteer, please send this completed form, your CV, and the Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form to info@ccadld.org with the subject heading CCA AD HOC VOLUNTEER APPLICATION or by post to:
